

CHEMICAL MECHANICAL ELECTRICAL & INSTRUMENTATION CIVIL STRUCTURAL

ENGINEERING CONSULTANTS

FOR THE SUGAR INDUSTRY

Our unique expertise has allowed us to work with sugar companies around the world. We understand the constraints of sugar production and can work closely with your company to bring proven, flexible solutions to your facilities.

EAPC

INDUSTRIAL SERVICES

EXPERIENCE

With state of the art technology software applications and informational resources to assist in problem solving and data analysis, we provide efficient, cost effective service to respond to client needs.

Preliminary Engineering & Estimating
Project & Construction Management
Chromatographic Separation
Process Analysis & Troubleshooting
Debottlenecking/Efficiency Studies
Maintenance Planning
Pressing & Pelletizing
Sugars Software Process Modeling
Combustion Engineering

Ion Exchange
Crystallization
Packaging
Diffusion
Centrifuges
Drying
Wastewater Cogeneration
3D Modeling

Boiler/Condensate
Evaporation Networks
Pressure Vessels
Purification and Kilns
Product Handling
Combustible Dust
Activated Carbon

EAPC is a full service engineering firm specializing in serving the sugar industry. Our staff of over 120 includes a group of dedicated engineers who have been involved with nearly every operation in the manufacture of sugar over the past 20 years.

ABOUT US

CONTACT US

Feel free to contact us with your engineering needs. If you would like us to stop by and introduce ourselves, let us know. We look forward to working with you.

Cory Vaughn PE, Interim Director
Bemidji, MN | 7218.751.0151 | cory.vaughn@eapc.net

Jeff Sobolik, Senior Process Engineer
Grand Forks, ND | 701.775.3086 | jeff.sobolik@eapc.net

www.eapc.net/is

INVOLVED WITH NEARLY EVERY OPERATION IN THE MANUFACTURE OF SUGAR OVER THE PAST 20 YEARS

North Dakota: Grand Forks, Fargo, Bismarck, Minot, Williston

Minnesota: Bemidji

South Dakota: Sioux Falls

Colorado: Fort Collins

Arizona: Phoenix

